

BTMA 2010 Board of Directors Profiles

Marty Arsenault: President, Howard Tool Company 547 Odlin Road Bangor, ME

No. of years w/company: 24

Years as an NTMA Member: 10

BTMA Committee(s):

Involvement in Other Organizations:

Recent Awards/Achievements:

Reasons for Joining the BTMA Board:

Years on BTMA Board: 6

Chairperson, Education & Training Committee

NIMS (National Institute for Metalworking Skills) Auditor

NTMA Safety Award

“I feel that BTMA is the leading organization in the industry, and my company’s involvement helps us stay competitive in the metal working industry. I am very fortunate to be included in this group and enjoy working to help BTMA in its future endeavors.”

Nick Baldassara: General Manager, PGM-New England 5 Perimeter Road Manchester, NH

No. of years w/company: 9

Years as an NTMA Member: 8

BTMA Committee(s):

BTMA Leadership Position Held:

Recent Awards/Achievements:

Reasons for Joining the BTMA Board:

Years on BTMA Board: 6

Executive Committee

BTMA Treasurer

NADCAP Approval - Recertification, June 2009

AS 9100 / ISO 9000-2000 Recertification, September 2009

“I believe that the Board of Directors is striving for continuous improvement to ensure the organization is delivering a value added product for all its members. Any help the Board can offer to others in these tough economic times is very rewarding. We need to keep this organization strong as in years past for all of our survival.”

Edward Fitzgerald: Vice President of Operations, Fitz Machine, Inc. 4 Railroad Avenue Wakefield, MA

No. of years w/company: 15

Years as an NTMA Member: 5

Involvement in Other Organizations:

Recent Awards/Achievements:

Reasons for Joining the BTMA Board:

Years on BTMA Board: 2

Member, Greater Boston Manufacturing Partnership

AS9100:2004 certification, Woman Owned Business certification.

“I volunteered to be part of an organization that consists of professional members in the Machine Technology field. I felt I could contribute to our society by condoning good business conduct and ethical practices. Machining is the backbone of the country, and it provides a solid career for some who are willing to invest time. Awareness of the BTMA and what it stands for is vital to all companies involved in whole or part to the Machining Industry. I am here to provide as much help as I can”.

Bob Graham: Account Manager, Yarde Metals, Inc. 1 Yarde Drive Pelham, NH

No. of years w/company: 15

Years involved in BTMA: 16

BTMA Committee(s):

Involvement in Other Organizations:

Reasons for Joining the BTMA Board:

Years on BTMA Board: 4

Operations Committee

Tilton School Board of Trustees, Tilton, NH – First Vice President

“To support the Machining Industry in our region to which my family and I are indebted for our livelihood and well being. I strongly believe that manufacturing remains critical to our nation’s economy and security and that Tooling & Machining is THE critical backbone of manufacturing.”

Timothy H. Martens: Vice President, M&H Engineering Co. 183 Newbury Street Danvers, MA

No. of years w/company: 12

Years involved in BTMA: 38

BTMA Committee(s):

BTMA Leadership Position Held:

Recent Awards/Achievements:

Reasons for Joining the BTMA Board:

Years on BTMA Board: 3

Chairperson, Operations Committee

Current BTMA Vice President (09 – 11)

ISO 13485 Certified

“I feel that I can help the BTMA continue to be a vital part of the local machining and business communities by helping expand membership, working with local educational institutions, and working with local businesses and government alike to increase awareness of our industry.”

Jack Mello: Sr. Credit Officer, UPS Capital 401 Edgewater Place, Suite 107 Wakefield, MA

No. of years w/company: 13

Years involved in BTMA: 13

Involvement in Other Organizations:

Reasons for Joining the BTMA Board:

Years on BTMA Board: 9

SBA, Preferred Lender

Coordinator for the 2010 United Way campaign

To gain further knowledge of the industry and forge relationships within it, since it has been an industry niche upon which we have historically focused. To try to provide a different perspective to the Board based on my financial background and experience.

Michael Pasciuto: President, Custom Machine Inc. 30 Nashua Street Woburn, MA

No. of years w/company: 26

Years as an NTMA Member: 32

BTMA Committee(s):

BTMA Leadership Position Held:

Involvement in Other Organizations:

Recent Awards/Achievements:

Reasons for Joining the BTMA Board:

Years on BTMA Board: 3.5

Education & Training Committee, Executive Committee

Current BTMA President (09 – 11), Vice President

Society of Aerospace Engineers – Member

NTMA National Robotics League (NRL) Team -Member

ISO 9000-2008 and ISO 13485- 2003 certification

“The BTMA is a vital organization for the metal working industry. Custom Machine has benefited from relationships, both personal and professional, developed through networking and involvement over the years. Volunteering to be on the board is my way of giving back to the Association.

Robert O’Donnell: Vice President, O-D Tool, Inc. PO Box 372 Mansfield, MA

No. of years w/company: 37

Years as an NTMA Member: 19

BTMA Committee(s):

BTMA Leadership Position Held:

Reasons for Joining the BTMA Board:

Years on BTMA Board: 13 Trustee to NTMA

Executive Committee, Operations, Membership

Immediate Past President, Trustee, Vice President and Treasurer

“The more you put in the more you get back. Anyone in business, whatever the kind, should join an organization that can help improve his business. Once you get involved, you will see why you will want to give back.”

Of Note:

Served as NTMA Advisory Team Chair and Member – Membership Growth and Retention.